

Los Angeles County BOARD OF SUPERVISORS POLICY MANUAL

Policy #:	Title:	Effective Date:
6.040	Departmental Web Pages – Hot Links to the Child Support Services Department’s “Most Wanted” List	12/09/97

PURPOSE

Provides a way to expose the Child Support Services Department’s list of non-custodial parents who have been convicted of failure to pay court-ordered child support and for whom arrest warrants have been issued to the widest possible audience to help apprehend these individuals.

REFERENCE

December 9, 1997 Board Order, Synopsis 50

January 28, 1998 Chief Information Officer memo, “Departments to Establish Website Link from their Department’s Internet Home Page to the D.A.’s “L.A.’s Most Wanted Delinquent Parents List””.

September 8, 2009 Board Letter, Approved Board Order 23

POLICY

As part of a larger effort to publicize the Child Support Services Department’s “Most Wanted” list, each County department is required to have on its website a hot link to the Child Support Services Department’s web page, <http://cssd.lacounty.gov>, containing that list. The Chief Information Office and the Internal Services Department are to assist departments in establishing that link.

RESPONSIBLE DEPARTMENT

The Child Support Services Department will monitor compliance with this policy with the assistance of the Chief Information Office.
